The roots of the Green Berets can be traced to elite units like the Office of Strategic Services (OSS) and various special operations groups during the war. In 1952, the U.S. Army officially established the Special Forces, drawing inspiration from earlier unconventional warfare units. The selection of the distinctive green headgear was symbolic, representing their unique role within the military. The beret was chosen over traditional headgear to emphasize their unconventional, elite status.

Adoption of the Green Beret

The green beret was first worn by the Special Forces in 1961, following a decision by President John F. Kennedy.
