Definition and Context

A fictional character who commits genocide is a narrative figure involved in the systematic extermination of a particular group, often depicted within stories to highlight themes of evil, tyranny, or moral decay. These characters are crucial in storytelling because they serve as catalysts for conflict, development of protagonists, or as symbols of larger societal issues. Key elements include: - Moral ambiguity: Such characters often possess complex motives. - Narrative significance: Their actions drive plot and thematic exploration. - Symbolism: They may represent societal fears, historical atrocities, or philosophical dilemmas.
