Historical Context of Assam's Electoral Rolls in the 1960s

The 1960s were a pivotal decade for Assam, marked by political reorganization and socio-economic transformations. The voter list of Assam 1966 was compiled following the directives of the Election Commission of India, aimed at creating an updated and accurate electoral roll to conduct fair elections for the Assam Legislative Assembly and the Lok Sabha constituencies. This period witnessed heightened political participation, with a focus on inclusivity and enfranchisement of previously marginalized communities. The voter list not only enumerated eligible voters but also mirrored the demographic shifts due to migration, urbanization, and changes in constituency boundaries. the state's electoral engagement.

Compilation and Features of the Voter List of Assam 1966

Data Collection Methods and Challenges

The compilation of the 1966 voter list involved extensive door-to-door verification and data collection by electoral officers and local administrators. Unlike today's digitized processes, the 1966 list was handwritten and printed, relying heavily on manual record-keeping. Enumerators faced challenges such as linguistic diversity, remote geographic locations, and limited communication infrastructure, which sometimes resulted in discrepancies or omissions.

Demographic Representation

The voter list of Assam 1966 captured data primarily on the following parameters:

1. Name of voter
2. Age and date of birth

This voter roll underscored Assam's ethnic heterogeneity, including Assamese, Bengali, Bodo, and various tribal communities. However, the accuracy of representation was influenced by socio-political factors and administrative efficiency.

Electoral Boundaries and Constituency Delimitation

The 1966 voter list aligned with the delimitation orders issued post the 1961 Census. Constituency boundaries were redrawn to accommodate population changes, affecting the number of voters per constituency and, by extension, electoral strategies. This reorganization was critical in balancing representation but also led to disputes in certain areas, especially in districts with tribal populations.
