Curriculum and Course Content

The curriculum of the Fitzgerald FNP program integrates advanced pathophysiology, pharmacology, health assessment, and primary care management. Courses emphasize both theoretical knowledge and its application in clinical settings, preparing students to manage common and complex health issues in diverse populations. Key components include:

Clinical Training and Practical Experience

Clinical experience is a critical aspect of any FNP program, and the Fitzgerald FNP does not fall short in this regard. The program mandates a significant number of supervised clinical hours, typically ranging from 600 to 700 hours, spread across various primary care settings such as outpatient clinics, community health centers, and private practices.
