It provides an eyewitness account and personal testimony that supports the applicant's claim that the marriage is genuine and not entered into solely for immigration benefits. When is an Affidavit Required? While not always mandatory, affidavits are highly recommended, especially in cases where: - The couple's relationship is relatively new or non-traditional. - The applicant's documentation is limited or inconclusive. - The USCIS requests additional evidence. - There are concerns about the marriage's authenticity raised during interviews or background checks.
