Contextual Background: The Road to Civil War

Before delving into the specifics of Era 5 30A, it is vital to appreciate the cumulative factors that set the stage for conflict: - Slavery and Economic Disparities: The North's shift towards industrialization contrasted sharply with the South's agrarian economy rooted in slavery. These differences fueled ideological divides and economic tensions. - States’ Rights vs. Federal Authority: The debate over the rights of states to govern themselves versus federal authority became increasingly contentious, especially concerning the legality of slavery in new territories. - Expansion Westward: The acquisition of new territories raised questions about whether slavery would be permitted there, intensifying sectional conflicts. - Political Fragmentation: The decline of the Whig Party, rise of the Republican Party, and internal divisions within the Democratic Party reflected the deepening ideological rifts.

Key Events Leading Up to the Civil War

Several critical events characterized the final buildup to the war during Era 5 30A:

1. The Election of Abraham Lincoln (1860)

Lincoln's election was a watershed moment, as he was perceived as anti-slavery and sectional. His victory prompted Southern states to consider secession.

2. Secession of Southern States

Confederate Strategies

- Defense of Southern territory (home-field advantage) - Offensive operations to threaten Northern states and gain international recognition - Use of guerilla tactics and swift raids

Major Battles and Campaigns
