The Life and Ministry of Lester Sumrall

Born in 1913 in Indianapolis, Indiana, Lester Frank Sumrall emerged as a dynamic force within Pentecostal Christianity. His ministry career spanned over seven decades, beginning with his early conversion and subsequent calling to evangelism at a young age. Sumrall’s work was marked by a strong emphasis on global missions, media outreach, and church planting efforts that contributed significantly to the spread of Pentecostal beliefs worldwide. His organization, LeSEA Broadcasting, founded in 1972, became a cornerstone for Christian media, reaching millions through its television and radio stations across multiple continents.

Global Missions and Church Planting

One of the defining features of pioneers of the faith Lester Sumrall is his passion for missions. He traveled extensively, ministering in Africa, Asia, South America, and Europe, often establishing new churches and training indigenous pastors. Sumrall’s missionary strategy was holistic, incorporating evangelism with humanitarian aid, such as orphanages, medical clinics, and educational institutions. This global outreach reflected his conviction that the gospel message should transcend cultural and geographical boundaries—a principle that resonated with the wider Pentecostal movement's emphasis on the Great Commission. Compared to other evangelists of his era, Sumrall’s commitment to sustainable church growth and leadership development set him apart, fostering self-reliant Christian communities.

Media Ministry and Technological Innovation

Sumrall’s foresight in utilizing media was instrumental in expanding his influence. At a time when many religious leaders were hesitant to adopt new technologies, he embraced television and radio as powerful tools for evangelism.
